1. Reference is [ ] dated 10 December 1954, and to previous correspondence concerning Subject.

2. The following information, overt in origin, is transmitted to you as of possible pertinence to your interest in the case.

3. Jules Humbert-Droz is quoted in the "Neue Zuercher Zeitung" of Zurich, Switzerland, under date of 1 December 1954, to the effect that Noel Field told him during World War II that he, Field, was a convinced Communist and a Soviet agent. Droz is further quoted as stating that he then checked with Moscow, and when Field's representations were confirmed, enrolled Field in the Swiss Communist Party. In his activity as Director of the Unitarian Service Committee, the statement continued, Field aided needy Communists referred to him by high Communist authorities, including the Moscow hierarchy. Droz, now a prominent Social Democrat, is described as the President of the illegal Swiss Communist Party during the War.
